As the first shoots of Spring arrive and the early signs of the housing market is also resurging into life, you might be thinking that now is a good time to consider moving, if this is you, then Design Inspiration's 'Design Moves' pack may be just what you need. The pack includes a consultation, home visit and staging with prices starting from £200 this could be the best move you make to give your home the saleability edge!

For those staying put and who perhaps put home projects on the back burner in 2009, this spring is an ideal time to start a fresh and begin a new venture to update the home. With so many fantastic new collections of fabrics and wall coverings to choose from, this year promises to be very exciting. But with so much choice, it's knowing where to start and how to coordinate them for optimum effect, with the professional talents of Wendy and Rose, Interior designers at Design Inspiration, this comes naturally, as having over 30 years experience in mixing textures, design and colours, from a whole host of suppliers shows. And if you need any convincing, a trip to the showroom confirms why it has been described as the best outside of London for both inspiration and choice.

The duo offer a home consultation service and produce a unique design scheme tailored for you, your budget and your families needs, combined with beautifully hand crafted soft furnishings from the in house workroom, it's a winning combination. For your appointment, telephone today.
